SYNTHETIC EXAMPLE for layout testing. Basis: GIPS Composite Report (Global Value Equity, data through 2025-12-31), verification letter dated 2026-03-15 and DDQ section 7. Diligence review against the 2020 GIPS standards; not a verification or legal opinion.

- Overall assessment: Satisfactory with follow-ups. The compliance claim is supported, but composite-scale and fee evidence need reconciliation S1 S2 S3.

Key judgment — claim wording is supported

The firm-wide compliance statement follows the required wording in the reviewed report S1. This supports the presentation of the claim, but wording alone does not establish that every firm process, composite record and disclosure operated consistently during the covered periods.

Key judgment — latest year is outside verification

Verification covers 2015–2024 while the composite report extends through 2025 S1, S2. The latest reported year therefore sits outside the stated verification period, so readers should not infer verifier coverage for 2025 from the earlier opinion.

Key judgment — composite scale conflicts

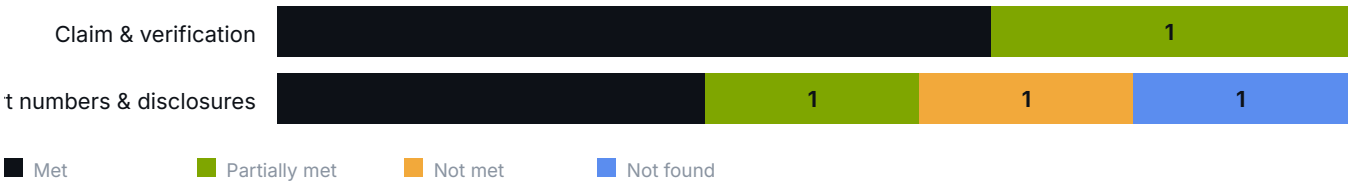

The DDQ reports $2.4B of composite assets versus $2.1B in the year-end report S1, S3. The $0.3B difference remains unresolved because the records do not provide aligned effective dates or a reconciliation of flows and valuation changes.

Key judgment — fee basis is incomplete

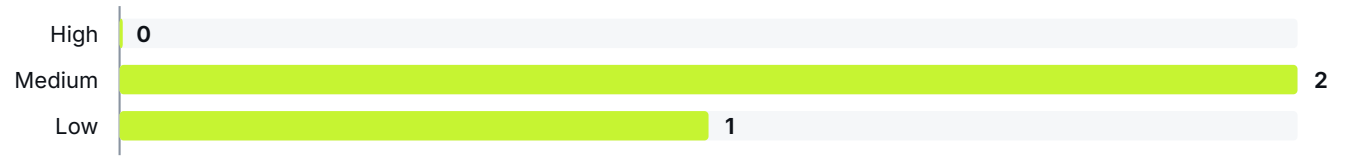

The report describes management fees but does not identify the stated performance fee S1. This omission limits interpretation of net returns because the reviewed schedule does not establish whether that additional fee applies or how it is reflected.

02 Findings

CHECKLIST STATUS BY AREA

FINDINGS BY SEVERITY

MEDIUM Composite assets conflict
The DDQ reports $2.4B while the GIPS Report reports $2.1B S1, S3.

MEDIUM Fee schedule incomplete
The reviewed fee disclosure omits the performance fee S1.

LOW Verification period gap
Verification evidence ends at 2024-12-31 S2.

Two Medium findings limit reliance on the supplied record: composite assets conflict across the DDQ and GIPS Report, and the fee schedule does not identify the performance fee. Verification ends one year before the latest report period, a Low finding S1 S2 S3.

Analysis — composite scale is unresolved

Observation: Composite assets differ by $0.3B across two records S1, S3. Why it matters: Scale changes the context for the presented track record. Uncertainty: Effective dates and reconciliation records were not supplied. What would change the view: Follow-up request 1 producing a dated reconciliation.

Analysis — net-return fee basis is incomplete

Observation: One stated performance fee is absent from the schedule S1. Why it matters: Net-return interpretation depends on a complete fee basis. Uncertainty: The supplied report may omit a separately approved schedule. What would change the view: Follow-up request 2 producing approved fee records.
